

Come to a Book Signing featuring our very own Andy Purvis!

Local Corpus Christi author, Andy Purvis
is celebrating the publishing of his sixth book, Remembered Greatness
with a book signing event being held at the Barnes & Noble book store
in Corpus Christi, Texas, on Saturday, August 25 from 1:30 until 3:30 pm.

Remembered Greatness is a compilation of 60 inspirational stories about some most famous athletes, coaches, writers, and owners from his childhood, "who have now become shadows of my past." writes Purvis. "I hope that these thoughts, words, and stories will bring them back to life in your imagination, as they have in mine. If you didn't get a chance to see these people, or hear about them, then you missed out on some of the greatest athletes and game-time

This book is published by Xulon Press, is available for purchase at their website www.xulonpress.com. You can also purchase the book from the Barnes & Noble book store in Corpus Christi, Texas or at the following websites: bn.com, amazon.com, booksamillion.com, alibris.com. You may also check GOOGLE for more, under author name or book title. Additionally, it is available for eReaders, Kindle, Nook and more.

You will see also his previous "Sports Greats" book, In the Company of Greatness (68 stories in that previous collection). If you don't have a copy of the book yet there will be plenty in stock at the event. He will also be available for questions and comments. Guests with the author will be Shane Nelson, former NFL Linebacker with the Buffalo Bills, and artist Jeff Chilcoat, of Chilcoat Studios design firm, who designed covers for all six of Mr. Purvis's books. Stop by and have the author sign a copy of both books for you.
